

2020 Hong Kong International Fur & Fashion Fair

As an international fur trade centre, Hong Kong will take centre stage again in coming February 25-28 – when the Hong Kong International Fur & Fashion Fair takes place at the Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre.

In no doubt the Hong Kong International Fur & Fashion Fair is the most outstanding trading platform for fur industry. An exceptionally all-rounded range of exhibits, ranging from raw materials to fur apparel and accessories will be in the limelight. The Fair will congregate 100 local and overseas exhibitors, including two national pavilions from Germany and Greece.

Hong Kong Fur Gala – Dazzling Creativity Enchants World Buyers

Staging on the opening night of the Hong Kong International Fur & Fashion Fair, the annual Hong Kong Fur Gala has been a focal event under the spotlight since its debut. Today, the exciting evening showcases the latest collections from 10 leading Hong Kong furriers, arresting the attention of global buyers. With fur taking the fashion stage by rage, Hong Kong fur designers are responding with original ideas – made possible by local fur manufacturers in pursuit of advanced technology and distinctive craftsmanship. The unconventional catwalk show, which struts original thoughts and exceptional craftsmanship, offers inspirational tips for buyers.

Appreciating global buyers' support

In view of the Hong Kong incident in recent months, we refer to the fairs which were organized by the Hong Kong Trade Development Council at the Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre, their fairs have not been affected in recent months. And in fact, some pioneered trade fairs have recorded increase of exhibitors and buyers. One of the major hotels nearby was fully occupied. The support of trade visitors was particularly encouraging. Please rest assured that all of us are determined to do our utmost to stage safe and effective fairs in Hong Kong.
